

DROP US A LINE! THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

MONDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1904.

How often do you hear the above expression from your friends? Of course you want to remember them and comply with their wishes. To do this you must keep on hand a full supply of Paper, Envelopes, Ink, Pens, etc. We carry a very fine and complete line of Stationery and can supply your wants at popular prices. Fine Paper should always be used in writing personal or business letters. It adds dignity to your correspondence. Besides the cost is trifling. Poor paper is dear at any price. It will pay you to use the best.

THE WOODMEN'S FAIR.

A Few of the Good Things at the Modern Woodmen's Fair.

Below is the programme which can be seen, is the best ever produced at any thing similar in the city of Barre. Take note of the talent which has been procured to take part! Something excellent for each evening of the week.

For instance Monday evening the 17th, the night of the opening. We find the very best orchestra of seven pieces to be had in the city, under the direction of Mr. Gilbertson, with a first class violinist from Burlington. Also Dr. Lynde in one of his amusing French dialect pieces. But let us not overlook Miss Phillips, whose charming voice has captured a Barre audience before this. Miss Phillips will render songs of an almost popular nature which she handles in a very pleasing manner. So on through the week, every concert will worth five times the price of admission and which speaks for itself. A handsome door prize will be given every evening and a chance goes with each admission ticket. With the finest dancing floor. The best orchestra and a hall safe from fires, the drill team of Camp 8856, M. W. of A., look for a decided success. The programme:

Monday. Overture—Tullio. J. H. Hyde. Intermezzi—Gondolier. J. H. Hyde. Reading. Dr. Lynde. J. F. Truman. Two Songs. Emma J. Phillips. Selection—Selected.

Tuesday. Orchestra—Selection. Uniform Team Drill (Time 35 minutes). Piano Solo. Miss Iris Averill. Orchestra—Selection.

Wednesday. Piano Solo. Miss E. Carson. Dance Caprice. Miss May Carson, Miss Grace Barclay. Reading. Philip Gordon, William McLeod.

Thursday. Song Comic. Miss Pike. Song Comic. Mr. John Kessock. Orchestra—Selection.

Friday. Piano Duo Misses Spear and Batchelder. Reading. Miss Strong. Bag Punching. Robert Kerr. Vocal Solo. Robert Duff. Orchestra—Selection.

Saturday. Selection—Orchestra. M. W. of A. Mixed Drill. Eight Ladies and Eight Gentlemen. Reading. Miss Allie Richardson. Orchestra—Selection.

Sunday. Mandolin Club—Selection. Vocal Solo. James Gauld. Reading. Miss Mida Tompson. Selection—Orchestra. Admission 10 cents.

VOUCHED FOR J. P. MORGAN.

Photographer Hesitated Over Financier's Big Order for Pictures. On his recent visit to Niagara Falls, in company with the archbishop of Canterbury, the financial standing of J. Pierpont Morgan, owner of several railroads and a millionaire many times over, was questioned by a skeptical photographer, who narrowly escaped death from heart failure when Mr. Morgan ordered $200 worth of pictures.

The Buffalo News. The archbishop, it appears, wished to have his likeness taken, with the falls as a natural background. Mr. Morgan arranged it, and the party stood down on one of the walks in the gorge, while the photographer did his worst.

"How much are those pictures going to be?" asked Mr. Morgan when it was all over. "One dollar," replied the hopeful photographer.

"Well, I wish you'd finish about forty." "Forty?" gasped the photographer. Mr. Morgan said he understood right.

Just as they were about to ascend from the gorge Mr. Morgan spied a large group picture, perhaps two feet square. Turning to the photographer he asked the price of that style.

"Five dollars," said the photographer. "Well, never mind the other," replied Mr. Morgan. "Finish forty of those larger ones."

The photographer hesitated, then stepped aside to Secretary Rankine of the power company at the falls. "You'll stand good for these, won't you, Mr. Rankine?" he asked.

"Yes," replied the power man, with a smile, "I will, but I think perhaps that man's credit is all right. He's J. Pierpont Morgan." The photographer seemed reassured.

RUSSIA AND JAPAN. Frank R. Robinson, the Lecturer, to Give Illustrated Lecture on Subject.

Frank R. Robinson, who as a lecturer is second to none, and who is well known to Barre people, will give one of his best lectures in the opera house Nov. 1, 1904. His subject, "Russia and Japan," is one that at present will be of great interest to all Barre people.

Robinson's lecture will embrace the pertinent personalities on both sides in the present war between Russia and Japan. He describes the condition of Russia and the issues at stake in the present war.

Overwork Killing Us

In the Great Struggle for Wealth and Position We Are Becoming Weaker Than Our Forefathers.

By the cares of business and social life we use up or waste away the most vital elements of the human body before we realize our weak and run down condition. It seizes on us so quietly at first that little or no attention is paid to the symptoms, which commence with a queer, bewildering sensation in the head, later the power to concentrate the thoughts, so necessary to brain workers, is lost. Following this will come deficient sight or blurred vision, muscular weakness and a dull pain in the small of the back. There is a tendency to tire easily; the digestion becomes impaired; the temper irritable; spirits depressed, ending in complete lack of confidence and a general feeling of disgust at our own weakness. When the blood and nerve forces have been wasted by disease, overwork, worry, brain-tire, high living, dissipation or other bad habits, Dr. Chase's Blood and Nerve Food rebuilds the system by replacing the same substances that have been lost. Price 50 cents. Sold and guaranteed by E. A. Drown.

DAVIS' OLD DESK.

Why Democrats Vice Presidential Candidate Preferred It to New One.

"Attachments for old friends and familiar surroundings are strong in ex-Senator Henry G. Davis of West Virginia, candidate for the vice presidency on the Democratic ticket," said a gentleman to a reporter of the Baltimore Sun. "When he was president of the Davis Coal and Coke company the offices were removed from German street to palatial quarters in the Maryland Trust company's building. The moving was done in the absence of Mr. Davis, and to make the interior fittings agree with the up to date quarters new furniture and desks were installed. Among the discarded furniture was an old desk which Mr. Davis had used for years. A secondhand furniture dealer gave $2.50 for it.

When Mr. Davis made his first visit to the new offices he asked for his desk, and the clerks pointed proudly to a piece of furniture which was an item of $75 on the bills paid for the refurbishing of the new offices. Mr. Davis was not at home at the up to date desk. He asked where his old one was. A clerk said it had been sold to a secondhand furniture dealer. Mr. Davis made the request that it be returned, as he felt very much attached to it. It was but a few minutes before one of the clerks was in the shop of the secondhand man almost out of wind, asking him if he had disposed of the desk he had sold him a few days ago for $2.50. Luckily it was on hand. What did the shopkeeper want for it? Ten dollars was his demand. The price was paid and the desk returned to Mr. Davis' place in the office. It is thought the desk went with the offices to the Continental building and was destroyed in the fire.

Sleeping Cars.

George M. Pullman got his idea for a sleeping car from a miners' cabin at Central City, Colo.

The Beggar Silk-worm.

The Japanese have a race of silk-worms to which they apply a name the equivalent of "the beggar." These worms feed greedily upon withered or otherwise spoiled leaves, which one of the self respecting race of silk-worms wouldn't touch. Yet their larvae remain as vigorous as those of the more fastidious races.
